

House Resolution No.

Whereas, it is with utmost respect that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in their daily legislative endeavors in order to recognize those Show-Me State residents who truly embody the concept of “Outstanding Missourian” through their deeds and achievements; and

Whereas, Marion (Woody) Woods of Warrensburg has attained considerable distinction as the “Voice of Warrensburg” heard daily on KOKO 1450 AM radio for the past thirty-eight years; and

Whereas, on Wednesday, April 21, 2004, Marion Woods will meet with state legislators in the Missouri House of Representatives to receive well-deserved honors and accolades for the exemplary role he has performed in Missouri as a community leader; and

Whereas, Marion Woods was born in Oklahoma, studied at DeVry in Chicago, and worked in Canada, Indiana, and Kentucky before wending his way to Missouri; and

Whereas, Marion Woods married Irma in April 1962, after which time their lives together as husband and wife have been blessed with two children, Sherri Woods Nace and Doug Woods, and five grandchildren; and

Whereas, Marion Woods has served on practically every community board in Warrensburg, including two years as President of the Warrensburg Chamber of Commerce; has been seen at numerous sporting events where he has either cheered on his favorite team as a spectator or has provided commentary as an announcer; and has practiced his golf game during fair and foul weather conditions; and

Whereas, in addition to newscasts and sports commentary, Marion Woods is known for his knowledge of music, FCC regulations, and electronic repair:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Marion Woods as an “Outstanding Missourian” and to extend to him this legislative body's most heartfelt welcome to the state capitol on April 21, 2004, for special recognition as a guest in the House Chamber; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of "Outstanding Missourian" Marion Woods.
